Ideally at an event such as this, there should be a contribution from children who have some folk music skills to show and the festival has been lucky enough to be able to feature children from Sandhurst Primary School who will be displaying their Maypole dances.

A final part of the attraction will be a chance to participate in the unusual entertainment provided by the ever popular Amazing Zolas. The Zolas will also be running their Parachute Party in the Rainbow Room earlier in the day at 11.30 a.m..
